

Former SSU Student Arrested For Child Porn

March 28, 2006

SACRAMENTO -- A former student at Sacramento State University is accused of viewing child pornography on campus. Today, police arrested 25 year old Siquerio Mateo Olander Rios. Officers say they started watching Rios last May after receiving a tip.

Police say Rios is no longer a student at CSUS and moved to an apartment complex near Fair Oaks Blvd. and Howe Ave. in Sacramento County. He was arrested near his apartment this morning without incident. Agents from the FBI transported Rios to the Marshal's Office for formal proceedings.

Investigators say the initial examination of material seized from Rios contained child pornography, including graphic depictions of bondage and torture. Sample images were sent to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children Child Victim Identification Program. The organization reported that hundreds of the images contained children from at least 37 known child pornography series.

The United States Attorney for the Eastern District of California, McGregor Scott, will be coordinating the prosecution. Rios could face up to 20 years in prison. Rios is being detained and will appear before US Magistrate on Wednesday.

Anyone with additional information is asked to call the Sacramento Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force at 916-874-3002.
